About Me

From the moment I produced "Hello World" in the console of my first application, I knew I was hooked into the world of software development. But software development has never been "just a job" for me, it's offered an engaging challenge to continually learn and improve my skills in creating high quality software. What started with a simple "Hello World" has become a full-fledged passion that only gets more exciting as I go by.

EXPERIENCE

Toolin' Around — (https://github.com/anhcu/toolin-around-)

This application makes it easy for neighbors to borrow tools from each other with an ease. Simply log in and search for tools that you need.

Tech Blog — (https://github.com/anhcu/Tech-Blog)

This website is a great way to share your expertise while building a potentially valuable readership. It can help you share your projects, or provide guidance to other web users

Note Taker — (https://github.com/anhcu/Business-Owner-Note-Taker)

Whether it's at the office during an important client conference call, at home or anywhere else, we have to jot down different types of notes and information on a routine basis. Note Taker can help you with that.
